The Madras Essential Articles (Movement Control) Order, 1948.

Under this Control Order, no person may, by rail, road or otherwise bring into, move through or remove out of any of the districts in which the Order is in force, any essential article specified in the schedule to the Order, unless he has been granted a permit in that behalf by the Provincial Government or by any officer or authority subordinate to them to whom the power to grant permits under the Order has been delegated. It is noticed that applications for permits received by the Government do not often contain adequate information for the purpose, and in several cases relevant particulars regarding specification of the goods to be transported and other details such as name and address of the would be consignee and purpose of the movement etc., have to be called for, thus involving correspondence and consequent delay in the disposal of applications. To obviate these delays and inconvenience to the public, and in the interests of the expeditious despatch of the work, the following form of application is prescribed:-

APPLICATION FOR GRANT OF A PERMIT UNDER THE MADRAS ESSENTIAL
ARTICLES (MOVEMENT CONTROL) ORDER, 1948.

--

1. Name and address of applicant for permit.
2. Station of despatch.
3. District.
4. Specification of goods to be transported.
5. Quality.
6. Quantity.
7. Name of customer, dealer or other person to whom the goods are to be consigned.
8. Destination station.
9. District.
10. Mode of transport (Mail, Road, Boat etc.).
11. Purpose for which the above goods are required (to be clearly specified).
12. Remarks (the applicant should explain here how he happens to be the consignor, if the goods do not belong to him or were not sold by him).

I declare that all the statements that I have made above true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
